Pre-test Questions

1. Do you draw? If yes, how often?

Yes, Usually, without a fixed routine

2. How would you describe your level: beginner, hobbyist, or more advanced?

Beginner.

3. Have you used any drawing or creativity apps before? Which ones?

Yes, mainly Adobe Photoshop

4. When you draw, what's usually hardest: getting started, staying motivated, or improving

Improving.

First Screen Impression

At first glance, I think the app is for painting or drawing. It looks cute, simple, and fun. It also feels very basic, like it's for beginners who are just starting to learn. The little pen icon is really funny, and the nature background reminds me of drawing apps.

End of test (Debrief)

1. "What part of the app felt the most clear?"

Mostly the user interface — and in general, the functionality was clear too.

2. "What part felt confusing or annoying?"

Not really anything. Fortunately, nothing felt confusing or annoying for me. I didn't have any difficult parts.

3. "Did the progress and feedback feature feel motivating or stressful?"

Overall, it felt motivating.

4. "If you could change one thing, what would it be?"

I would maybe change the category section.

5. "Would you personally use something like this? Why or why not?"

Yes, I think so. Because the interface is user-friendly and simple, so I'd prefer using something like this.
